

Celebrating Local Indigenous Cultures

Sept. 29th – Nov. 3rd
1:00 PM at MSU Billings
Student Union Building
Glacier Room

Big Horn Medicine Wheel

Charles Yarlott
September 29th

The Big Horn Medicine Wheel, also known as "Annáshisee" by the Crow "Apsaalooké". Charles will present the historical oral stories and knowledge, passed on of the Big Horn Medicine Wheel. Through a Crow Indian point of view, he will share traditional historical and modern uses of the Sacred Site.

*Charles Yarlott
At Annáshisee*

A Sacred Act: Naming Children

Mardell Plain Feather
October 6th

Medicinal Plants

October 27th

Apsáalooke Beading

Birdie Real Bird
October 20th

Plains Indian Sign Language

Lanny Real Bird
November 3rd

Call the Yellowstone County
Museum for more information
(406) 256-6811

Student
Union
Building

