

November is National Native American Heritage Month

TRADITIONAL NATIVE GAMES

Ring the Stick

Ring and Pin games were played extensively by Plains Indian people and west coast tribes. The goal is to place the ring over the end of the stick. It was important to develop the hand-eye coordination on both sides of the body by using right hand then left hand in competitions.
(Little Shell)

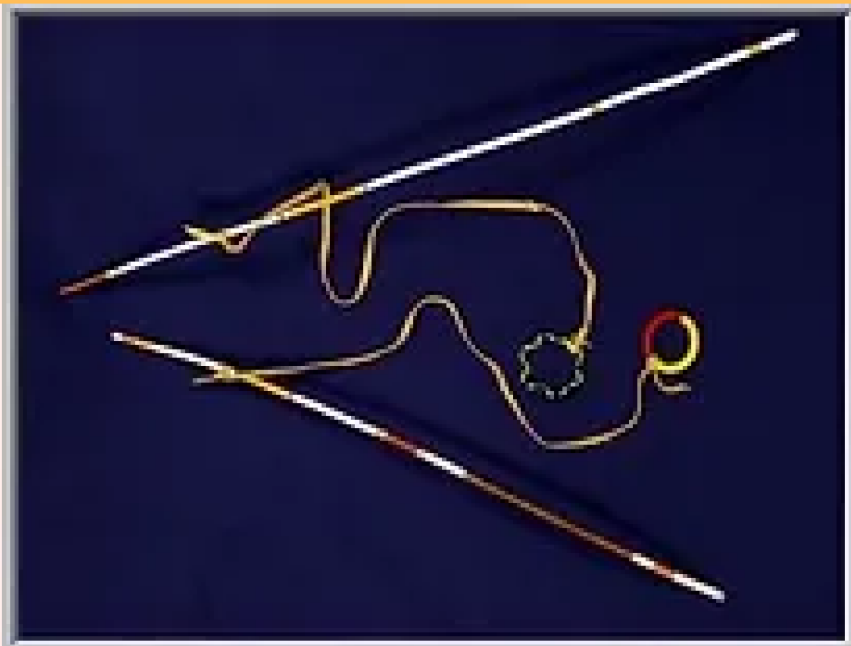

Image & information from International
Traditional Games Society

<https://www.traditionalnativegames.org/the-games>

