

YOUR BODY IS YOUR TEEPEE

Preventing marijuana use among American Indian Youth

Ne'voe nehe hehe
ve'nove, naa
o'no'ah'tsetotse
ne've'nahme

“Your body is your teepee and like a
teepee you need to
respect your home”

Daxúá Chikitá Ashé Alakoótkalakoota-k “Body - Respect - Teepee. To be the same”

Rocky Mountain Tribal Leaders Council • All Nations Youth Partnerships for Success
Les Left Hand, Project Director • Amanda Stops, Project Coordinator
2929 3rd Ave N, Ste 300 • Billings, MT 59101 • 406-252-2550 • www.rmtlc.org

CULTURE IS PREVENTION.

Daxúá Chikitá Ashé
Alakoótkalakoota-k

“Body - Respect - Teepee.
To be the same”

Respect Your Home

A 2020 study of American Indian youth in Montana found that involvement in cultural activities increased feelings of social support and connection-both reduce risk of marijuana use.

*Rocky Mountain Tribal Leaders Council • All Nations Youth Partnerships for Success
Les Left Hand, Project Director • Amanda Stops, Project Coordinator
2929 3rd Ave N, Ste 300 • Billings, MT 59101 • 406-252-2550 • www.rmtlc.org*